Ann Siner

Co-Founder & CEO
Eco-Chic Consignments, Inc.

Entrepreneur,
leader and mentor,
Ann Siner's business

featuring a family of high-end designer consignment boutiques has employed thousands of women over the last two decades. Siner has mentored hundreds of women at the start or transition points of their careers.

An innovator in her industry, Siner has built a strong brand that has seen its revenues increase despite the economy. Through smart marketing and differentiation, she has built a thriving business.

Siner is a lifetime animal lover, and serves the community through her work with Friends of Animal Care and Control, the Arizona Animal Welfare League and in opening her own home to foster animals. She has also worked with Sojourner Center and Arizona Women's Education & Employment.
