

09.09.09

My Sister's Closet

September 9, 8:15 PM - Scottsdale Fashion and Style Examiner - Christina Clark

Interested in making a little extra money in this tough economy? Well, maybe it is time to clean out your closet and earn some much needed shopping cash. My Sister's Closet consignment store is the perfect place to drop off some unwanted clothing and accessories in return for a little dough.

After selling your old goods, customers can take that money and check out some of the fabulous items being sold at incredible discounts. From Prada to Juicy, My Sister's Closet has a better selection than some department stores.

When searching for that perfect handbag or flattering pair of jeans this fall, make sure to check out My Sister's Closet at Lincoln Village in Scottsdale. For more information on the store and to find other locations visit the My Sister's Closet website!