

SO WEARABLE! in my closet

“What is your favorite shopping find?”

NAME: Ann Siner

WHAT I DO DURING THE DAY: My day begins by crawling out from between two big mixed-breed rescue dogs, my 13-year-old Westie, and an occasional cat or foster puppy. Then I'm off to Pilates, tennis or hiking to clear my head before work. And a day's "work" might consist of going to any one of our 11 stores [Siner owns My Sister's Closet], going to the office, or answering e-mails.

THE CLOTHES I'M WEARING: I'm wearing a vintage Emilio Pucci dress with one of Kate Spade's most popular shoes ever, the crab shoes. Based on similar items sold on eBay, the Pucci dress would probably sell for over $500 today.

THIS IS MY FAVORITE SHOPPING FIND BECAUSE: The vintage Pucci dress is my favorite shopping find EVER because it is so unique. I went to a trendy party last summer in Telluride hosted by some of the most skilled shoppers known to the Southwest. Not having a clue as to what to wear without spending a small fortune, I ran across the vintage Pucci dress that I had bought at My Sister's Closet years ago (for around $25) hiding in the back of my closet. While everyone at the party looked outstanding, I got the "coveted outfit" award! The beauty of any item designed by Pucci is its unique look. When you put vintage and Pucci together, you've got a definite fashion statement.

I LOVE SCOTTSDALE BECAUSE: I love Scottsdale because it is the typification of STYLE. The people that live here have so much style. In addition to stylish Scottsdale residents, the shopping centers, the resorts, the streets, even the bus stops have style in Scottsdale. Scottsdale is more than a name, it is both a noun and an adjective that depicts panache and fashion and a definite "lifestyle." What's not to love in Scottsdale?! 🍷
